Hello Parents:

Happy New Year! I hope you had a wonderful Christmas break. I enjoyed relaxing and spending time with my family in Washington. ☺

Due to the shortened week, I will not be sending home Wednesday folders. Any graded work will be sent home with your child tomorrow. Just a reminder that if your child is absent, please send me a message on the Remind App or email me at ahubbard@lla.org. I do post pictures of the daily agenda and any work we complete in class (specifically math) on the stream of Google Classroom when students are absent.

Aztec final projects are due this Friday, January 6. This assignment is to be completed at home. Be sure your child has a typed circa card with his/her project. Students have been provided class time to type their circa cards. Students need to keep all of their Social Studies projects until the end of the year for our classroom museum.

Please continue to monitor your child's progress on MyLLA; grades do fluctuate. Second quarter ends in less than two weeks. Students should have 95% of their AR goal by this Friday, January 6. To date, students have had the opportunity to test on 31.5 AR points from books that we have read in class and during library. Students need to achieve their entire goal by Wednesday, January 11.

Wednesday, January 18, is our sixth grade second quarter reward movie in Chan Auditorium. To participate students need to have achieved their AR goal for second quarter, have passing grades and no missing work. Students who do not qualify will have a study hall to work on AR and assignments for third quarter.

Our Ch. 3 Math test is scheduled for Thursday, January 19. We will be completing the end of chapter review activities and some practice tests to help prepare. Students are also encouraged to review all of their Ch. 3 completed assignments on the Big Ideas website.

Have a great week!
