

Hi Parents:

Happy Tuesday! Since I will be having Parent-Teacher conference with each of you, I will not be sending home Wednesday Folders this week. All graded work was sent home with your child today.

Please remember Parent-Teacher Conferences are 15 minutes long. Feel free to wait outside my classroom at the picnic tables, and I will let you in at your assigned time. If you are late, I will do my best to cover all of the information in the scheduled 15 minutes. I look forward to meeting with each of you over the next 3 days.

Students are working on their AR goals for second quarter. By Friday, students should have 25% of their goal to be up-to-date. Students need to meet their entire AR goal by Wed., January 11.

This week Pastor Jeremiah Green is our speaker for Week of Prayer. The past two days he has talked about how each of us are God's original masterpieces and we are unique and special. Along with Week of Prayer, we are participating in a New Clothing Drive for children and adults without homes. You can sign up to donate at <https://bit.ly/llnewclothes>.

The 6th grade class is having our bake sale on Wed., Nov. 9. If you have not had the opportunity to sign-up to help in some way, you can do so by clicking on the following link.

<https://m.signupgenius.com/#!/showSignUp/70a0e4bacaa2da7f49-6thgrade> Thank you for your support!!

Please remember that students need to keep all of their Social Studies projects until the end of the year for our classroom museum. To date, we have completed our gourd and our Maya final projects.

Just a little reminder of the sixth grade policy regarding late work: late work is not accepted 2nd-4th quarter. Any late work receives a zero grade. This is to prepare the students for Junior High. Please encourage your child to do his/her best to get work in on time. Students are given two homework passes each quarter to help in this matter.

Have a great afternoon!
